UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES NEWSLETTER

November Event Focuses on New York State Modern Political Archive

“New Directions in Historical Scholarship on the US Congress,” a panel discussion, will be held on Friday, November 16, at 4:00 pm, in UAlbany’s Performing Arts Center, uptown campus. The panel discussion is the closing plenary session for the annual “Researching New York 2007” conference. The panel will discuss the uses of archival Congressional materials in research libraries. Panelists will discuss their use of Congressional archives, and they will explore recent scholarship in Congressional history and research. Panelists will include:

- LAWRENCE EVANS, Professor of Government at the College of William and Mary. He is the author of Congress Under Fire: Reform Politics and the Republican Majority, with Walter Oleszek; and Leadership in Committee: A Comparative Analysis of Leadership Behavior in the U.S. Senate, as well as numerous articles and book chapters about Congressional politics.
- ROBERT DAVID JOHNSON, Professor of History at Brooklyn College, CUNY. He is the author of numerous books and articles on politics, Congress, and the presidency, including Congress and the Cold War; Ernest Gruening and the American Dissenting Tradition; The Peace Progressives and American Foreign Relations. He has also co-edited volumes two and three of the presidential recordings

Message from the Dean

Frank D'Andrea

In less time it takes the average college student to earn an undergraduate degree, the University Libraries have done something remarkable. Working as a team under the leadership of Roberta Armstrong, the Libraries’ Development Officer, the members of the Library Development Committee have raised significantly more than $1 million in new funds for the libraries. The Development Committee is composed of alumni and library supporters. Matt Ostoyich ’57 and Georgiana Panton are the current co-chairs of the Committee. Other members of the team are Maureen Andrews ’62, Hedy Bagatelle ’60, Elaine Brody, ’68, Carla Craft, Candace Groudine, Ph.D. ’98, Sandra Ostoyich MLS ’71, Edith Quake ’63, Jeremy Schrauf, MA ’75, Philip Shepherd ’60, Frances Shepherd ’62, Roy Stevens ’56, ’58, and Paul Travis ’75. Emeriti Development Committee members include: BJ Chase ’48, Charles Gibbs ’73, Rene Gibbs ’75, Lenore Grabowski ’62, dean emerita Meredith Butler, Doris Ward ’52, and Paul Ward ’53.

These individuals have led the various campaigns that created new endowments for collections, capital for renovation projects, new equipment, new furnishings, and programs for students and faculty. Their work provides a legacy of giving. They have been joined in their commitment by all of you. Your names are listed in the Honor Roll in this issue of Update. We are profoundly grateful for your continued support.

UAlbany students and faculty experience every day the benefits flowing from the generosity of UA alums and friends.

We now have installed a contemporary book security system for the University and the Science Libraries, and funding is in place to create a warm and welcoming leisure reading area in the University Library. Individual philanthropy offers the greatest benefit, which comes from having a research library that grants our students and scholars access to global resources to fulfill their research needs. Examples include the opening of our new Information Commons, which houses new computers and other top-tier equipment; the refurbishing of the Dewey Graduate Library, which meets the needs of graduate students in our highly-rated fields of Social Welfare, Criminal Justice, and Public Affairs and Policy; and the creation of nine endowments for collections spanning all areas of scholarly inquiry.

Building on the momentum of the past several years, I envision the Committee strengthening its efforts to set a new milestone for support of the Libraries. The UA Libraries continue to need support for the construction of group study space, climate control equipment for our one-of-a-kind special collections, and new resources for the expanding programs in the School of Nanotechnology and Engineering and the School of Public Health. These are our programs of the future, and UAlbany’s Libraries must be able to meet the needs of those students, faculty members, and researchers.

I know you will be there to help in these future endeavors. Thanks again for all you continue to do to maintain our strength and vitality into the 21st century.

Frank D’Andrea

New Faces in the University Libraries

LINDSAY VAN BERKOM has joined the faculty of the University Libraries as Operation/ Instructional Support Associate for the Dewey Graduate Library. Prior to her appointment at Dewey, Lindsay served as the Library Public Service Office Coordinator at Cornell University's Olin Library. Lindsay earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Applied Economics and Management from Cornell.

COLIN W. QUIN is an Instruction Support Associate in Reference Services. Quin comes to UA from St. Edwards University in Austin, TX. Prior to his work in Austin, he worked at Union College. He earned a BA in psychology from Bard College.

WIN SHIH has joined the faculty of the UA Libraries. Win comes to Albany from the University of Colorado at Denver Health Sciences Center, where he served as Head of Systems and Databases for four years.

Prior to that, he gained extensive university library experience working at Saint Louis University and the University of San Francisco. In his new duties, Win oversees library system operations. Win earned his bachelor's degree in Library and Information Science from National Taiwan University. He completed two Masters programs at the University of Illinois-Urbana, earning a degree in Library and Information Science, and another in Business Administration.

of Lyndon Johnson.

■ RICHARD NATHAN, Co-Director of the Rockefeller Institute and Distinguished Professor of Political Science and Public Policy at the University at Albany. He has written widely on American federalism and the implementation of domestic public programs in the United States. He served as Assistant Director of the U.S. Office of Management and Budget and Deputy Undersecretary for Welfare Reform at the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

In 2002, the University at Albany Libraries established the New York

State Modern Political Archive (NYSMPA). In the five years since the first collections were acquired, the University Libraries have secured the papers of 25 former members of Congress to complement the long-standing political archive.

The NYSMPA includes papers from scores of members, New York State Legislature, dating back into the early 19th century. In addition, the collection includes the papers of The Honorable George De Luca, who was Lieutenant Governor of New York from 1955 to 1959. The most recent acquisition to NYSMPA has been the papers of U.S. Congressman Sherwood Boehlert (R-24th District). Mr. Boehlert recently retired, after serving in the U.S. Congress since first elected in 1982. In addition, the Libraries have acquired the papers of The Honorable Frank Moore, who served as Comptroller of New York from 1943-1950, Lieutenant Governor of New York from 1951-53, and Chair of the State University of New York (SUNY) Board of Trustees from 1953-1966.

New Grants and Gifts to University Libraries

For 2007-08, the Libraries received an award for $22,700 from NY State Education Department for Library Collections, restricted to the following academic fields: business, biology, atmospheric sciences, public policy, anthropology, social welfare, and criminal justice.

The Libraries received a Conservation Preservation Grant of $126,000 from the NY State Education Department for use in 2007-08.

New York State Senator Serphin Maltese (15th District, Queens) made a member's grant to The M.E. Grenander Special Collections and Archives. The $3,000 grant is for processing materials in The New York State Modern Political Archive (NYSMPA).

University at Albany's Libraries will share a portion of a $180,000 grant from the Getty Foundation's Campus Heritage Initiative. The grant will be used to develop a long-term plan to preserve and enhance the university's uptown campus designed by Edward Durell Stone. The Libraries will be responsible for a public education program about the campus and its future.

The Friends of the Libraries, Eliot Lumbard, and longtime benefactor

Marcia Brown have made recent substantial gifts to support projects and programs in the M.E. Grenander Special Collections and Archives.

"Frequent Fliers" Land at UA Libraries

If the UA Libraries could collect frequent flier miles for visits to our web pages, the Libraries would have a number of free trips coming — domestic and foreign. According to this year's "Web Presence Usage Report" prepared by librarian Laura Cohen, MLS '75, a variety of global users visited the Libraries' web site from domains worldwide, most notably Canada (26,000), the UK (22,000), Australia (21,000), India (18,000), Germany (12,000), Denmark (10,000) and 90 other countries in 2006/2007.

Other interesting data collected by Cohen:

- Users come to our web site from a variety of internet providers, most prominently local cable service Road Runner (324,000 visits).

- There were 3,777,000 visits to the Libraries' website in 2006-2007. 2,783,000 of these visits came from off campus.
- Visits to the Libraries' website peaked in September, October, November, and March, with a total of 340,000 or more visits during each of these months. October had the highest visit count, with 415,000 visits. These are months of high activity in the Libraries when the semesters are in full swing.

Library Faculty Activity

In September, Via was appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Capital District (NY) Library Council.

GEOFF WILLIAMS is serving on the University at Albany Getty Grant Steering Committee and the State University of New York History of SUNY Committee.

Help Build a Legacy through “Honor with Books Fund”

An inspirational work of literature, a favorite book, your children's most-requested bedtime story — there are moments in our lives when a book had made an indelible impression. Books sustain us and connect us to our families, friends, and teachers. Books are given to mark special occasions, such as birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, and other times of special achievement.

Bookplates make that connection tangible. They document an important milestone, convey the bond we have with a book, and honor those who have made a difference in our lives.

The UA Libraries invites you to participate in a special program designed to allow you to pay a lasting tribute to a special person or highlight a special occasion by placing a bookplate in a newly purchased book in the subject area of your choosing (Arts, Education, Humanities, Sciences, and Social Sciences). Your $100 gift directed to the Honor with Books Fund will support a critical acquisition needed for the Libraries and simultaneously honoring an individual or marking an occasion in perpetuity.

When you make your gift to the UA Libraries' Honor with Books Fund, a letter of acknowledgment and a copy of the bookplate will be sent to you and the honoree or his or her family. In addition, your name will be listed in the Library's annual honor roll of donors.

For information, contact Roberta Armstrong at: armst13@aol.com or 562-594-8995 or 518-429-5588.

UA Libraries Host Association of College & Research Libraries Program

The Association of College & Research Libraries (ACRL) and University at Albany Libraries jointly sponsored a “Marketing @ Your Library” Workshop in October. The workshop was an intensive one-day program intended to guide individuals to develop a marketing communications program for an academic library. The focus was on communicating with external audiences but involving internal audiences, e.g. staff, friends, and volunteers. The program emphasized basic marketing concepts and skills that enable libraries to develop a customized marketing program.

Twenty-five librarians attended the program. Workshop instructors were Ken Marks, Dean Emeritus of University Libraries, University of Nevada — Las Vegas, and former chair of ACRL @ Your Library Task Force and the ACRL Marketing Academic Research Libraries Committee. Dr. Marks has presented this highly-acclaimed workshop to academic librarians located in the US, Europe, and Asia; Deborah Bernnard, UA's Dewey Library, who was a member of the American University Libraries Team that was the 2005 recipient of ACRL's Best Practices in Marketing Academic and Research Libraries @Your Library Award; Dean Frank D'Andraia; as well as MARL Committee members Barbara Winters, Dean of Libraries, Marshall University, Huntington, West Virginia; and Cynthia Pawlek, Associate Librarian of the College, Dartmouth College.

Happy 75th Birthday for ARL!

The 151st Association of Research Libraries (ARL) Membership Meeting took place in October in Washington DC. ARL President Sherrie Schmidt (Arizona State University) opened the Membership Meeting and introduced a program celebrating ARL's 75th anniversary. Hunter R. Rawlings III, Professor and President Emeritus, Cornell University, delivered keynote remarks on “Libraries in Higher Education and a Democratic Society.” Following the program, a gala anniversary reception was held in the Great Hall of the Jefferson Building, Library of Congress.

The UA Libraries have been a member of ARL since 1975. Eight ARL academic libraries are located in New York, associated with the following institutions: Columbia, Cornell, NYU, Rochester, State University of New York Centers at Albany, Buffalo, and Stony Brook, and Syracuse University. Currently, UAlbany is at 111 in the ARL ranking.

ARL is a nonprofit organization of 123 research libraries at comprehensive, research-extensive institutions in the US and Canada that share similar research missions, aspirations, and achievements. ARL member libraries make up a large portion of the academic and research library marketplace, spending more than $1 billion every year on library materials.

UA Libraries Raise $1.1 Million from Alumni and Friends

Alumni and friends of UA's Libraries contributed $1.1 million in gifts and pledges in the 2006-2007 fiscal year to support programs, collections, and special projects. The amount raised represents a record high for a single year of Library support. “We are very pleased with these results,” says Dean Frank D'Andraia. “Our donors help keep the Libraries central to the intellectual lives of UA students, faculty, and researchers.”

The private support was in the form of outright gifts, pledge payments, and bequests made and received. See the “Honor Roll,” pps. 6-11, for details.

Contributions were for the Annual Fund as well as for support for endowments. The Library Development Committee is currently advancing nine endowments. These endowments, all of which were initiated within the last five years, are collectively worth $1.5 million. The Development Committee, led by Georgiana Pantone and Matt Ostoyich '57, is committed to achieving another banner year for endowment support in 2007-2008.

For a complete list of the endowments, see page 6. For further information, contact Roberta Armstrong (Armst13@aol.com or 562-594-8995 or 518-429-5588).

University at Albany Libraries Honor Roll of Donors 2006-2007

We have delineated the names of our supporters into categories in the list of recognition. This list includes both annual fund gifts (unrestricted) and gifts for endowments (restricted). The donors listed have contributed in whole or in part to the Libraries at the level noted. We have made every effort to ensure the accuracy of this listing of our donors to the University Libraries for July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2007. If you find an error, please notify us and accept our apologies.

Gifts to Albany's Libraries through the Annual Fund are a vital source of funds for purchasing books and other materials, enhancing libraries services, for initiating special projects, and for providing general support. These funds are unrestricted. Gifts to endowments can be made outright (cash), through a living trust, or a bequest in a will, by a paid up life insurance/retirement plan gift, a real estate donation, or through a plan that gives a return to the donor (charitable gift annuity or a pooled income fund); or a charitable remainder trust or charitable lead trust. All such gifts present tax advantages, and you can combine a gift to realize significant tax advantages for you and your family.

The following donors have contributed all or a portion of their annual gift to the University Libraries from July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2007

Be Part of the Libraries' Legacy

The following endowments represent current investment opportunities for UA Library donors.

- The Dean and Director's New Initiatives Fund for Albany's University Libraries.
- Honoring Our Professors Endowed Fund for University Libraries.
- University Libraries Fund for Materials in Education.
- University Libraries Fund for Materials in Fine Arts and Performing Arts.
- University Libraries Fund for Materials in Social Sciences.
- UAlbany's Greatest Generation Fund for the University Libraries.
- University Libraries Fund for Materials in Economics.
- University Libraries Endowment for Enriching Programs in Science and Technology.
- The Preservation of Tradition Fund for the University Libraries.

Gifts for endowment are invested by the University. The income from that investment is directed towards a purpose that is specified by the donor. Endowment funds are especially valuable because, once established, they provide interest income for the library in perpetuity. Such funds allow donors the opportunity to honor or memorialize a friend or family member. It's a wonderful way to blend a donor's vision with University Libraries' objectives.

In addition to the current established endowment opportunities, you may choose to establish a named endowment fund with a minimum gift of $10,000 to the University Libraries. All purchases made from book endowment funds are recognized by a special bookplate. Other library purchases are recognized by a plaque. Contact Roberta Armstrong for more information (Armst13@aol.com or 562-594-8995 or 518-429-5588).

Members of the Class of 1957 on campus last May to commemorate their 50th reunion and to celebrate raising over $50,000 in support of "Honoring Our Professors Fund for the Libraries." Most of the money raised was through the Class of '57 Reunion Gift. Other classes are expected to join in support of this fund through their own reunion giving.
